MATTHEW J. DYKMAN
CLERK

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW MEXICO

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

DENNIS J. LOVATO,

Defendant.

No. 11-CR-1213-MCA

PLEA AGREEMENT

Pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(C), Fed. R. Crim. P., the parties notify the Court of the following agreement between the United States Attorney for the District of New Mexico, the Defendant, Dennis J. Lovato, and the Defendant's counsel, John F. Moon Samore:

REPRESENTATION BY COUNSEL

1. The Defendant understands the Defendant's right to be represented by an attorney and is so represented. The Defendant has thoroughly reviewed all aspects of this case with the Defendant's attorneys and is fully satisfied with his attorneys' legal representation.

RIGHTS OF THE DEFENDANT

2. The Defendant further understands the Defendant's rights:
- a. to plead not guilty, or having already so pleaded, to persist in that plea;
 - b. to have a trial by jury; and
 - c. at a trial:
 - 1) to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses,
 - 2) to be protected from compelled self-incrimination,

- 3) to testify and present evidence on the Defendant's own behalf, and
- 4) to compel the attendance of witnesses for the defense.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS AND PLEA OF GUILTY

3. The Defendant agrees to waive these rights and to plead guilty to the indictment, charging a violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1153 and 1111(a), Second Degree Murder.

SENTENCING

4. The Defendant understands that the maximum penalty provided by law for this offense is:
- a. imprisonment for any term of years up to life;
 - b. a term of supervised release of not more than five (5) years to follow any term of imprisonment. (If the Defendant serves a term of imprisonment, is then released on supervised release, and violates the conditions of supervised release, the Defendant's supervised release could be revoked -- even on the last day of the term -- and the Defendant could then be returned to another period of incarceration and a new term of supervised release.);
 - c. a $250,000 fine; and
 - d. $100 special penalty assessment.

5. The Defendant fully understands that the agreement included in this document determines the sentence in this case, and whether the Court accepts the plea described herein and enters that agreed upon sentence is solely in the discretion of the Court. Both parties understand that should the Court choose not to accept this plea agreement, as fully laid out in this document, that the United States will withdraw from this plea agreement and proceed to trial on the indictment in this case.

6. The parties recognize that the federal sentencing guidelines are advisory, and that the Court is required to consider them in determining the sentence it imposes.

7. The parties agree that, as part of the Defendant's sentence, the Court will enter, if applicable, an order of restitution pursuant to the Mandatory Victim's Restitution Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

8. The United States reserves the right to make known to the United States Pretrial Services and Probation Office and to the Court, for inclusion in the presentence report to be prepared under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32 any information the United States believes may be helpful to the Court, including but not limited to information about any relevant conduct under U.S.S.G. § 1B1.3.

DEFENDANT'S ADMISSION OF FACTS

9. By my signature on this plea agreement, I am acknowledging that I am pleading guilty because I am, in fact, guilty of the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty. I recognize and accept responsibility for my criminal conduct. Moreover, in pleading guilty, I acknowledge that if I chose to go to trial instead of entering this plea, the United States could prove facts sufficient to establish my guilt of the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. I specifically admit the following facts related to the charges against me, and declare under penalty of perjury that all of these facts are true and correct:

The night of April 15, 2011, I caused the death of Joseph Melvin Lucero by beating him with my hands and feet during a fight. As I struck Mr. Lucero that night, I acted with malice aforethought, which I understand means that I acted with callous and wanton disregard for his life. There was no justification or excuse for causing Mr. Lucero's death. I am responsible for his death and admit the legal elements of Second Degree Murder.

These legal concepts have been explained to me by my attorney.

I struck Mr. Lucero when we were in his yard, which is located within Santo Domingo Pueblo in New Mexico. That location is "Indian Country" under federal law.
As a member of Santo Domingo Pueblo, I am an "Indian" as that term is defined by federal law.

10. By signing this Agreement, the Defendant admits that there is a factual basis for each element of the crimes to which the Defendant will plead guilty. The Defendant agrees that the Court may rely on any of these facts, as well as facts in the presentence report, to determine the Defendant's sentence, including, but not limited to, the advisory guideline offense level.

STIPULATIONS

11. The United States and the Defendant stipulate as follows:

- a. The United States has made an agreement with the Defendant pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(c), FED.R.CRIM.P., that a specific sentence of a term of imprisonment of 12 years (144 months) followed by five years of supervised release should be imposed in this case. The parties agree that this sentence is the appropriate sentence in this matter and that the Court will determine whether restitution and/or a fine is appropriate under the law and facts of the case. The Defendant may not seek a downward departure, variance, or deviation of any kind from the agreed upon sentence.

If the Court accepts the plea agreement, it must inform the Defendant, to the extent the plea agreement is of the type specified in Rule 11(c)(1)(c), that the agreed disposition will be included in the judgment and the request binds the Court once the Court accepts the agreement.

- b. Except under circumstances where the Court, acting on its own, fails to accept this plea agreement, the Defendant agrees that, upon the Defendant's signing of this plea agreement, the facts that the Defendant has admitted under this plea agreement as set forth above, as well as any facts to which the Defendant admits in open court at the Defendant's plea hearing, shall be admissible against the Defendant under Federal Rule of Evidence 801(d)(2)(A) in any subsequent proceeding, including a criminal trial, and the Defendant expressly waives the Defendant's rights under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(f) and Federal Rule of Evidence 410 with regard to the facts the Defendant admits in conjunction with this plea agreement.

DEFENDANT'S ADDITIONAL OBLIGATIONS

12. The Defendant understands the Defendant's obligation to provide the United States Pretrial Services and Probation Office with truthful, accurate, and complete information. The Defendant represents that the Defendant has complied with and will continue to comply with this obligation.

13. The Defendant agrees to forfeit his law enforcement certification and further agrees to no longer work or seek future employment as a law enforcement officer in any local, state, or federal law enforcement agency.

WAIVER OF APPEAL RIGHTS

14. The Defendant is aware that 28 U.S.C. § 1291 and 18 U.S.C. § 3742 afford a Defendant the right to appeal a conviction and the sentence imposed. Acknowledging that, the Defendant knowingly waives the right to appeal the Defendant's conviction(s) and sentence, except to the extent that the Court imposes a sentence that differs from that agreed to by the parties under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C). In addition, the Defendant agrees to waive any collateral attack to the Defendant's conviction(s) and any sentence, including any fine, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2241 or 2255, or any other extraordinary writ, except on the issue of counsel's ineffective assistance in negotiating or entering this plea or this waiver.

GOVERNMENT'S AGREEMENT

15. Provided that the Defendant fulfills the Defendant's obligations as set out above, the United States agrees that the United States will not bring additional criminal charges against the Defendant arising out of the facts forming the basis of the present indictment.

16. This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Mexico and does not bind any other federal, state, or local agencies or prosecuting authorities.

VOLUNTARY PLEA

17. The Defendant agrees and represents that this plea of guilty is freely and voluntarily made and is not the result of force, threats, or promises (other than the promises set forth in this agreement). The Defendant also represents that the Defendant is pleading guilty because the Defendant is in fact guilty.

VIOLATION OF PLEA AGREEMENT

18. The Defendant agrees that if the Defendant violates any provision of this Agreement, the United States may declare this Agreement null and void, and the Defendant will thereafter be subject to prosecution for any criminal violation, including but not limited to any crime(s) or offense(s) contained in or related to the charges in this case, as well as perjury, false statement, obstruction of justice, and any other crime committed by the Defendant during this prosecution.

SPECIAL ASSESSMENT

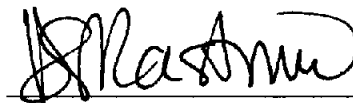

19. At the time of sentencing, the Defendant will tender to the United States District Court, District of New Mexico, 333 Lomas Blvd. NW, Suite 270, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87102, a money order or certified check payable to the order of the United States District Court in the amount of $100.00 in payment of the special penalty assessment described above.

ENTIRETY OF AGREEMENT

20. This document and any addenda are a complete statement of the agreement in this case and may not be altered unless done so in writing and signed by all parties. The parties agree and stipulate that this agreement will be considered part of the record of the Defendant's guilty plea hearing as if the entire agreement had been read into the record of the proceeding. This agreement is effective upon signature by the Defendant and an Assistant United States Attorney.

AGREED TO AND SIGNED this 24th day of October, 2013.
